THE NEW JERSEY CHAPTER OF COMMUNITY ASSOCIATIONS INSTITUTE ANNOUNCES OFFICE RELOCATION, EXPANSION

Freehold, NJ, November 9, 2015– The New Jersey chapter of Community Associations Institute (CAI-NJ), the leading resource for NJ’s community association industry, is proud to announce that it has relocated the chapter Headquarters effective November 1, 2015 to a larger facility located in beautiful Freehold, NJ.

CAI-NJ’s Headquarters will now occupy the entire two floor building centrally located in Monmouth County. The move was strategic to provide improved service to CAI-NJ members, as the new location has enhanced meeting and training space, totaling almost 3,000 square feet. The Freehold office also provides for room for growth.

According to the New Jersey chapter Executive Director, Larry Thomas, PCAM, “We are fortunate to find such a great location for the new CAI-NJ office Headquarters. This facility will allow for centrally located meetings as well as provide us with a location for training events and seminars.”

The CAI-NJ Headquarters office will now be located at 500 Harding Road, Freehold, NJ 07728. The phone and fax number will remain the same, (609)588-0030 phone and (609)588-0040 fax.

The New Jersey Chapter of Community Associations Institute (CAI) is a membership-based nonprofit organization dedicated to advocating for its members and the issues that affect NJ’s 6,600 community associations and their 1,100,000 residents. CAI-NJ is committed to enhancing the quality of community association living through education, legislative advocacy and professional development. We provide continuous education and resources to help our members stay abreast of the current news, laws and issues affecting community associations in New Jersey. For more information about CAI-NJ, visit www.cainj.org or call (609)588-0030.
